Group Sues For Access To RFK File

A Washington organization which claims that the public does not know the "whole truth" concerning assassinations of public figures has filed lawsuit against the Justice Department, seeking access to a secret FBI file on the death of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

The Committee to Investigate Assassinations Inc., saying its goal is "educating the public," asked U. S. District Court here Wednesday to order the release of an FBI file that has already been made available to lawyers and a journalist.

The suit, filed by the group's execuitve director, Bernard Fensterwald Jr., said it should have the same access to the report as Robert Blair Kaiser.
